

Flexible Workforce Solutions Fund

Funds eligible businesses for projects and activities that address workforce shortages and gaps in the NT.

The Flexible Workforce Solutions Fund encourages business and industry to collaborate on projects to attract and retain the skilled workforce they need.

To be eligible, you must:

- Be a Territory enterprise
- Hold a valid Australian business number
- Operate in the NT or have provided services in the NT for at least 6 months
- Carry a public/general liability insurance policy of at least $10 million
- Be financially viable and have capacity to complete the project
- Be part of a business consortium.

Grants of up to $200,000 are available on a 25:75 co-contribution basis for projects and activities. This means you have to provide 25% of the total.

In kind co-contribution for not-for-profits will be accepted.

You must show how your project or activity does one of the following:

- Contributes to regional industry workforce solutions
- Contributes to seasonal workforce strategies
- Leverages new technology or innovation
- Delivers direct, in-country worker recruitment services.

This Fund budget is $3M over two years and the Fund will end at such time as is determined by the Northern Territory Government.
